

Here are a few items of news relative to the Domestic Supplier of the Official Uniform.

>On December 1st we go into full operational mode with the new domestic > supplier. They have just received 9,000 uniforms from the warehouse and they > are validating the size of each item to be sure the member receives exactly > what he ordered.

> They will offer a few extras at no additional cost as well. I believe we > will have a great working relationship with TSR and our members will be > pleased with the service.

> Here is a short list of things the new domestic supplier is working on and > information that can be made available to our members:

> First and foremost, they are utilizing all the talents and experience they > have within their organization to create the most comfortable and best > fitting garments possible.

>They are adding a concealed stretch waistband in the pants to add comfort > and a little forgiveness if you add an inch.

>They are creating a website with an embedded video demonstrating how and > where to measure to help fit you properly.

>They are going to offer a layaway program to ease the financial burden to > those who need it. They think this will make a difference.

>They are going to offer a black oxford, made with a high gloss, top grain > cowhide, lined on the inside with a soft leather and leather sole. This shoe > sells for well in excess of $120.00, however, they will offer it for far > less. They don't have the final cost just yet, however, it will be very > attractive.

>They are going to offer a 100% wrinkle free white shirt. This will be a > shirt you can take out of the dryer and wear. It will be moisture wicking > and quick drying. They will also have exact sleeves, if you need a 32" > sleeve you will not have to settle for a 33".

>They are quickly developing an overcoat made from a luxurious flannel, with > zip out liner. This coat will be water repellent and mid-thigh length. This > coat will be attractively priced and an excellent value.

>The new domestic supplier is working hard to offer excellent quality, good > fitting and comfortable garments, first class service and just being a true > partner! Spread the word! All questions should come through the chain of > command and not to Supreme. We will have to get the answers from the > Supplier, I'm sure.
